
"For the good which has been done by individuals or communities, in relation to this work, let each have a due share of credit."

Dewitt Clinton.