

Public Library Finance and the Trustee's Fiduciary Responsibilities

A Free Webinar for Library Trustees

Thursday, December 4, 2014

10:00 am-11:00 am

Presented by Gerald Nichols

Author, Handbook for Library Trustees of New York State

The webinar will provide a brief overview of the Library Trustee's roles and responsibilities in public library finance. It will also review what every Trustee should know about the Library's financial resources and revenue streams, investment and procurement policies and internal controls. Lessons learned from recent NY State Comptroller's library audits will also be discussed.

For more information about this webinar and other upcoming and archived webinars, please visit:

<http://www.nysl.nysed.gov/libdev/webinars/index.html>

Some Other Webinars from Your State Library:

- Basics for New Public Library Directors
- Basic Library Law for Trustees
- The Critical Partnership: Public Library Trustees and Directors
- Freedom of Information and Open Meetings Laws for Libraries
- What Every Trustee Should Know

And brand new....

Free Access to WebJunction Online Courses for All!

The State Library has partnered with OCLC to provide free access to WebJunction's self-paced courses and webinars for all library workers, volunteers (including trustees) and students in New York State. The free access is open now at learn.webjunction.org

The University of the State of New York
The State Education Department, New York State Library
Albany, New York 12230

www.nysl.nysed.gov

November 2014