

Quick Guide

1. Go to <http://factfinder2.census.gov>
2. In the middle of the page type the topic, then the geographic location you are interested in

The screenshot shows the 'Quick Start' search interface. At the top, it says 'Enter search term(s) and click 'GO'' with a help icon. Below this are two input fields: 'topic or table name' and 'state, county or place (optional)'. There are three radio buttons: 'topics' (selected), 'race/ancestry', and 'industries'. A 'GO' button is to the right. Two arrows point to the input fields with labels: 'Type topic of interest' pointing to the 'topic or table name' field, and 'Type geographic name Here' pointing to the 'state, county or place (optional)' field.

Note, when you type the geographic name, You'll see suggestions from the Census Bureau.

This screenshot shows the same 'Quick Start' search interface. The 'topic or table name' field contains the text 'poverty'. The 'state, county or place (optional)' field contains the text 'Avoca village, New York'. The 'GO' button is visible to the right.
