

LAWS OF NEW YORK, 1995

CHAPTER 163

in relation to participation in the Seymour public library district by that portion of the town of Sennett located within the boundaries of the Auburn enlarged city school district

Became a law July 19, 1995, with the approval of the Governor.

Passed by a majority vote, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general, special or local law to the contrary, the Seymour public library district created and established in the county of Cayuga shall include that portion of the town of Sennett located within the boundaries of the Auburn enlarged city school district subject to a referendum of the voters of that portion of the town of Sennett located within the boundaries of the Auburn enlarged city school district.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

The Legislature of the STATE OF NEW YORK ss:

Pursuant to the authority vested in us by section 70-b of the Public Officers Law, we hereby jointly certify that this slip copy of this session law was printed under our direction and, in accordance with such section, is entitled to be read into evidence.
