

craigslist tour

Craigslist is a network of on-line communities, featuring free classified ads. It has many sections, including jobs, housing, personal ads, goods for sales, services for sale, and discussion forums.

Popular Questions and Answers

What is my craigslist user account? Do I need one?

You can manage posts efficiently with a craigslist user account. The process of creating posts, editing and deleting them, and re-posting ads that have expired is much easier.

If you post frequently, or if you need to post paid ads, it makes sense to set up a user account.

How do I create a user account?

- Go to the account signup form.
- Enter your email address, type the five-letter verification word that appears on the screen, and click "create account."
- We'll send you an email with the instructions for completing the account setup process.

How do I create an ad with my user account?

- Log in to your user account.
- Use the pop-down menu in the upper right corner of your home page to select the craigslist site where you want to post.
- Click "Go."

How do I edit a current post?

- Log in to your user account.
- Locate the post you want to edit, click "manage."
- Click "Edit this Posting."
- Edit the ad.
- Click the "Make Changes" button to confirm.

How do I repost an old ad?

- Log in to your user account.
- Locate the post you want to re-post, click on its title.
- Click "Repost this Posting."
- Select the category for the ad.
- Verify the title and body of your new ad, edit the text or add images if necessary, click "Continue."
- Check the preview of your post, then click "Continue" to publish the ad.

How do I delete a current post?

- Log in to your user account.
- Locate the post you want to delete, click on its title.
- Click "Delete this Posting."

How do I set a default craigslist city for my ads?

- Click the "Settings" link at the top of your user account home page.
- Adjust the pop-down menu option for "default site", then click the "change" button.
- Click "account home" to return to your user account home page.

How can I control the number of posts that will appear on my user account home page?

- Click the "Settings" link at the top of your user account home page.
- Adjust the pop-down menu option for "maximum number of postings displayed", then click the "change" button.
- Click "account home" to return to your user account home page.

How do I adjust my default log-in duration?

- Click the "Settings" link at the top of your user account home page.
- Adjust the pop-down menu option titled "stay logged in for," then click the "change" button.
- Click "account home" to return to your user account home page.

Can I remove an ad from my user account home page, or change the order of ads?

Not yet -- we hope to offer these features soon. For now, all posts associated with your user account are displayed in chronological order, the most recent ads are listed at the top.

Do I need a user account to submit new ads?

User accounts may be required, depending on a number of circumstances (e.g., category, city, etc). In general, it is much easier to edit, delete and re-post your ads if you manage them through an account. If you post frequently, it makes sense to set up a user account.

IMPORTANT WARNING

WARNING: scammers may try to steal your account by sending an official-looking email with a link to a fake craigslist login page that looks like this page, hoping you'll type in your username and password.

Look carefully at the web address near the top of your browser to make sure you are on the real craigslist login page, <https://accounts.craigslist.org>

The safest way to login is go to the craigslist homepage directly by typing in the web address, and then clicking on the 'my account' link.

Making Posting Decisions

- Crossposting (listing in multiple locations) is prohibited. Choose the city closest to you that is accurate for your location. Craigslist is meant to be for face to face sales, not for ordering from a website. If you post to an area that is not near your location, it will get flagged and deleted.
- Most categories are free to post, so choose one that is closest to what you are offering.
- Craigslist does not allow you to link your ad to a website. Describe your product or service and include photos when possible.
- Posts are arranged by date and time, with the newest ads showing first.
- Open an account so you can easily review and renew your ads to keep them fresh and in the top of the lists. It is quick and easy and safe.
- You can post ads without an account but you lose the ability to renew and edit the ads. You will still have to provide an email address to craigslist, but can choose to have it not shown to the public.

Craigslist Safety

- We all have to maintain an awareness that the possibility of fraud exists in every business opportunity, both on-line and off-line.
- Because Craigslist does not have a rating system, and offers the opportunity for direct sales, you must be on the watch for scam artists. Be smart and insist on talking to a prospective buyer or seller on the phone.
- Only ship items when they are paid in full, and the funds have cleared. Do not ever accept an offer to be paid more money than you are asking. Be suspicious if a buyer offers you money to accept a check larger than the purchased item and wants you to clear the check and refund the balance. Report this activity to Craigslist's fraud department.
- Common sense has to be foremost as the majority of the people using Craigslist are honest buyers and sellers.

Advice From Craigslist:

The overwhelming majority of craigslist users are trustworthy and well-intentioned.

With billions of human interactions facilitated through craigslist, the incidence of violent crime has been extremely low.

Nevertheless, it's very important to take the same common sense precautions online as you would offline.

When meeting someone for the first time, please remember to:

- Insist on a public meeting place like a cafe
- Do not meet in a secluded place, or invite strangers into your home
- Be especially careful when buying/selling high value items
- Tell a friend or family member where you're going
- Take your cell phone along if you have one
- Consider having a friend accompany you
- Trust your instincts

Taking these simple precautions helps make craigslist safer for everyone.
