

Geneva Public Library Public Computer Center's Opening Ceremony

January 4th, 2011 at 11:00 AM

Come mark the Geneva Public Library's official public release of the new computers, learning technology, and furniture that, coupled with software updates to our current computers, comprise our new vision of a Public Computer Center within the library. The ceremony kicks off the first day of programming designed specifically through grant funded research and development.

Enjoy:

- Tours of the Public Computer Center and the entire Geneva Public Library!
- Discussion Opportunities with the Public Computer Center Grant Coordinators!
- A Preview of Center's Future Classes and Programming!
- Refreshments!!!

The Geneva Public Library is privileged to be one of 30 libraries in the state to receive the two year Public Computer Center Grant. The grant is part of the New York State's Broadbandexpress@yourlibrary project to help low-income, unemployed, underemployed, and other vulnerable populations in upstate New York. Broadbandexpress@yourlibrary will provide more than 860 computers in 30 libraries and five mobile training centers across 41 economically distressed upstate New York counties.

For more information about the opening ceremony, or the grant itself, please contact Chris Finger or at 315-789-5303 or via e-mail to cfinger@pls-net.org or visit the library's website at: www.genevapubliclibrary.net.
