JobLink to provide free class

For Immediate Release: Date

Your City, N.Y. – JobLink is offering a free class on Topic at Library on date at time. Offered through the Southern Tier Library System, JobLink is a mobile training unit to help area residents improve their computer and internet skills to find employment. Call (555) 555-5555 to sign up for the class.

JobLink services focus on basic computer skills, training and support for finding a new career. The JobLink van is a mobile computer lab complete with a fleet of laptops, a trainer and technician with the ability to set up in any location. The additional advantage of this program is its ability to bring broadband access to individuals who have limited or no access. Training is available throughout libraries in Steuben, Chemung, Yates, Schuyler and Allegany counties. For a complete class schedule visit <http://JobLink.stls.org>.

JobLink is made possible through a federal American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) Broadband Technology Opportunity Program (BTOP) award. JobLink is one of five mobile computer training units and 30 public access computer centers in public libraries across New York State.
