

JobLink

Free help applying for jobs!

Southern Tier Library System

The Southern Tier Library System is pleased to announce its new, FREE service - JobLink. Join us for an open house in Schuyler County on January 31, 2011 at 6:00 PM at the Watkins Glen Central School District Free Public Library.

JobLink provides job-related services to individuals that are unemployed or underemployed through workshops and one-on-one sessions. Since JobLink is a mobile service it comes to you! By partnering with libraries and community agencies, services are provided in Allegany, Steuben, Schuyler, Yates and Chemung counties. Some examples of workshops and support include resume creation, basic computer skills, and using on-line job search websites.

We look forward to celebrating this event with you on January 31st!

Where: Watkins Glen Central School District Public Library
610 South Decatur Street
Watkins Glen, NY 14891
When: Monday, January 31st
Time: 6:00pm

Kindly RSVP by Thursday January 27th to ezzoloa@stls.org or (607) 962-3141 ext.203

Come see what we're all about!
Enjoy refreshments after a brief presentation

JobLink is made possible through a federal American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) Broadband Technology Opportunity Program (BTOP) award. JobLink is one of five E-mobile computer training units and 30 public access computer centers in public libraries across New York State. Three of the 30 centers can be found at the Alfred Box of Books Library (Allegany county), Wayland Free Library (Steuben county), and Southeast Steuben County Library in Corning (Steuben county).
