

2009 H1N1 and Flu Information for Libraries

Libraries play a central role in disseminating H1N1 information to their communities: See: <http://www.nysl.nysed.gov/libdev/h1n1/index.html> for H1N1 and Seasonal Flu information for libraries, library workers, and communities.

The website provides the latest from www.flu.gov, CDC, New York State Health Department and New York State Education Department, PLUS specifically for Libraries:

- ✓ How to Plan and Prepare
- ✓ Steps for Libraries under Current and under More Severe Flu Conditions
- ✓ 8 Ways You Can Stay Healthy At Work
- ✓ Web Resources including a sign to post in the library
- ✓ Flu.gov widget to embed on your library's website
