

Opioid Overdose Prevention Education Resources For Libraries

Click any of the titles below to visit the site

New York State Department of Health is abbreviated NYSDOH

New York State Department of Education is abbreviated NYSED

Harm Reduction Coalition

Harm Reduction Coalition works to eliminate disparities in health care and human services for drug users and their communities through expansion of syringe access, overdose prevention, access to quality healthcare and reduction of the stigma faced by our most marginalized populations include education, alliance and coalition building, policy analysis, information dissemination and advocacy.

National Institute of Drug Abuse (NIDA) Webpage

Disseminates evidence-based research and resources for educators, students and families to educate and improve the prevention and treatment of substance use disorders and enhance public awareness of addiction as a brain disorder.

National Institutes of Health, National Institute on Drug Abuse 2018 Monitoring the Future Report (MTF)

This annual survey measures drug and alcohol use and related attitudes among adolescent students nationwide. Survey participants report their drug use behaviors across three periods: lifetime, past year, and past month. The survey is funded by the NIDA, a component of the National Institutes of Health (NIH) December 2018

NYSDOH AIDS Institute (NYSDOH-AI) Opioid Overdose Prevention Webpage

Provides an overview of the NYSDOH Opioid Overdose Prevention Program resources, including how to become a NYSDOH Registered Opioid Overdose Prevention Program and a link for resources specific to schools.

NYSDOH Helpline Call 1-877-8-HOPENY (1-877-846-7369) Text HOPENY (Short Code: 467369)

Visit www.oasas.ny.gov/accesshelp

NYSDOH Online "How to Use Narcan Nasal Spray for an Opioid Overdose" Factsheet

NYSED- NYS Library Combatting the Epidemic NY Libraries Save Lives Web Page contains resources related to educating, and training library personnel to carry and administer naloxone.

New York State Office of Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Services (NYSOASAS)

Contains links to NYS Combat Heroin and Prescription Drug Abuse, #CombatAddiction and #StopSynthetics resources which contain fact sheets and information for educators, students and parents on warning signs of addiction and the dangers of Fentanyl.

SAMHSA-Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration's Opioid Overdose Toolkit (6/2018)

This toolkit offers strategies to health care providers, communities, and local governments for developing practices and policies to help prevent opioid-related overdoses and deaths. Access reports for community members, prescribers, patients and families, and those recovering from opioid overdose.

When Seconds Count American Society of Anesthesiologists (ASA) Opioid Overdose Resuscitation Card

Provides a pictorial guide to steps in providing Opioid Overdose Response Care.