

SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1863.

Started early and
crossed the Potomac
by Pontoon at Edwards Ferry. All the army moved to intercept Lee's army. I find a great difference in the citizens here from what they are in Virginia.

SUNDAY 28

Marched through Medd town and several villages. I heard by the tavernkeepers we went the Ladies giving us Bread and Pie for nothing.
Lewy well.

MONDAY 29

Marched into Potosi
and then back to Potosi. The Rebels
all around.

TUESDAY, JUNE 30, 1863.

Crossed into Maryland
and then to Potosi.
Passed through Potosi
and then to Gettysburg
where we lay over night.
Got plenty to eat
from the citizens.

WEDNESDAY JULY 1

The Battle of Gettysburg commenced to day. We spent the fight with the 2nd Brigade of Cavalry and a few pieces of artillery. They arrayed us out of our position as we felt back to the town when the Infantry moved up. When we captured 500 Prisoners killed several by our artillery. We lost a few men.

THURSDAY 2

Went out scouting (on a squadron) came in night of the 1st and then marched back. The fighting commenced early again. A most bloody work done to day
how many that was a live and full of life this morning now slaps the slaps of death at the field and went to somewhere out of rations.

FRIDAY, JULY 3, 1863.

The fight commenced
with terrible carnage
early this morning some fierce work done to day.
left Varnhous and went to Westminister the Rebel prisoners coming in by the 1000? 1800 came through town to day.

SATURDAY 4

Dick Reburgh, surrendered sent a letter to John Wright and Crawford
deserted, left here
and went to Fredrick
the Rebels in full
retreat they suffered
very heavy loss party
decease

Camped near Fredrick
the Rebels still retreating no great disorder

MONDAY, JULY 6, 1863.

Left Fredrick and marched towards Gay Capt. sent the Rebels at Yellowingport fought
them a for a while
one Rebel captured
10 Prisoners the Rebels
broke and run

TUESDAY 7

The Rebels called on our Regt left as near Quinn the Rebels attacked us but we fought our way
out. lost a few killed
wounded and prisoners
I don't like this hear
the calls app. around in ears see Kirk's horse got shot retreated to Brownboro.

WEDNESDAY 8

The Rebels attacked us
this morning. we fought
pretty well all day
none of our Co. hurt
the shells coming among us pretty thick and
small balls too
drove them about
1 miles
