QUANTITY: 1 box (0.25 cubic ft.)
ACCESS: Open to research
ACQUISITION: Purchase, Craig Ross, February 1982
PROCESSED BY: Manuscripts and Special Collections, July 2013

Scope and Content Note:

The letters were written by Erastus Spaulding, mostly from Gates, Monroe County, New York, to his brother, Lyman Spaulding, residing at first in Rochester, New York, then in Canandaigua, New York, and later in Lockport, New York. The letters detail personal and family matters as well as business transactions between the two men. Several of the letters suggest they were also engaged in land speculation.
