SC20630

QUANTITY: 92 Boxes (48 cubic feet)

ACCESS: Collection is open for research

ACQUISITION: Gift of Mary Blanken Kohler, ca. 1980

PROCESSED by: Fred Bassett, Senior Librarian, Manuscripts and Special Collections, April 2003.

SCOPE and CONTENTS NOTE:

The Walter Kohler Railroads and Railroading Collection is organized into two series: I) timetables and railroad company publications; II) scrapbooks on railroads and railroading. The timetables and railroad company publications are arranged alphabetically by name of railroad line or company, as it existed circa 1930s-1950s primarily in the United States and Canada. Public timetables contained information on the schedule of trains, station stops, and the type of equipment and services available on a particular train; they were distributed to travelers and ticket agents. Other railroad company literature includes brochures related to travel and tourism, and magazines distributed to employees and stockholders. The scrapbooks contain newspaper clippings, articles from periodicals, and printed materials arranged mostly by topic. Some of the topics are locomotive and engines, railroad cars, and stations.
